THREE budding sunset photographers from Rockingham and Kwinana have snapped prizes in the inaugural Coastcare Photo Competition held during summer.

Linda Viljoen won the open competition with her stunning sunset shot depicting a staircase leading down to foot-trodden sand.

A small child looking out towards a beach sunset won Karen Wood the mobile category, while Miles Anderson's photo of a sunset over a jetty took out the student section.

Sponsored by the Kwinana Industries Council, the competition was part of the Coastcare program which aims to revegetate the Kwinana industrial area coastline.
